REPORT ON CELEBRATION OF 'RAKSHA BANDHAN'

Date of the Event: 11th August, 2022.

Venue: Kandivali

On 11th August, the students of Thakur college tied Rakhi and celebrated Raksha Bandhan with Khaki workers to show their respect and gratitude. It was a great way to show their appreciation for the hard work that the Khaki workers do for our society. The name for this unique campaign was called "Suraksha Bandha", which signifies their efforts to always be on the forefront, ensuring the safety of the people. The students visited the local fire department, bus depot, and the police station to celebrate the occasion with great enthusiasm. The students started their day by tying rakhi on the wrists of the Khaki workers. They wished them a happy Raksha Bandhan and thanked them for their service to the nation. They also offered them sweets and other snacks.

REPORT ON 'GARBA NIGHT DAY 1'

Date of the Event: 29th September, 2022

Venue: Thakur College

Navratri is one of the most awaited festivals in India. The nine-day festival is a celebration that recognizes the glory of Goddess Durga. To join the festivities Team Taarangan organized Garba Nights on the 29th and 30th of September '22. On the 29th of September students from the Junior college got to experience the grand Garba extravaganza. The evening began with a lamp-lighting ceremony following which DJ Nitesh and DJ Ann took over. The amazing duo had the entire throng engaging in very zestful and elaborate dance routines. Students, all decked up in traditional Navratri outfits, could be seen twirling on the euphonious Garba beats. The grounds of TCSC were suffused with swaying conversations and exhilaration. The energy that evening was palpable. To add to the excitement the amazing Harshita Khemchandani joined us as she promoted her cover of the super hit song 'Kesariya'. The female version of the song is a fresh rendition that left a pleasant memory in everyone's hearts.

REPORT ON DONATION DRIVE IN 'BELKHADI VILLAGE'

Date: 21st October, 2022 Venue:

Belkhadi Village, Vasai

"Giving back to society" was the motto that brought forth the human endeavor assumed by Thakur College of Science and Commerce that materialized on the 21st of October.

Taarangan is currently celebrating its 15th anniversary, which in turn, has brought an incline to all the events that lead up to the beloved collegiate fest. The abovementioned affair can be traced to the much-anticipated 'festival of lights;' Diwali brings joy and blessings into the lives of every Indian. Preceding the extravagant festival, this measure served as a catalyst to spread the gift of happiness. The CSR activity was undertaken by Team Taarangan and focused on accomplishing small, yet benevolent acts of kindness for the more vulnerable society, namely, the village of Belkhadi. Bikku Mahatre, the sarpanch of the aforementioned village played a vital role in the CSR activity. He functioned as the astute guide to Taarangan and went as far as offering his house as active storage during the span of the campaign. The activity comprised members of Team Taarangan, eager to play their part in uplifting our community. The morning of the fateful day, the students were draped in traditional attire – a deliberate action to pay homage to the time-honoured celebration of Diwali. The contributions included food rations like rice, flour, sugar and dal; and essentials that included a variety of clothes. Furthermore, a variety of recreational games and stationery were presented to children, aiding them toward an optimistic future. The outreach of this CSR activity was concentrated on the people living in run-down neighborhoods, i.e., the village of Belkhadi with minimal facilities.

The students visited the deficient houses and bestowed generous gifts upon them. The surprised folks reacted with ceaseless exuberance as if the gesture was a godsend miracle for Diwali. From the excited, smiling faces of the children to the glossy-eyed blessings of the elders, Team Taarangan collected a bountiful of contentment for themselves through this compassionate venture.

REPORT ON TRAILER SCREBNING OF "An Action Hero"

Date: 24th November, 2022

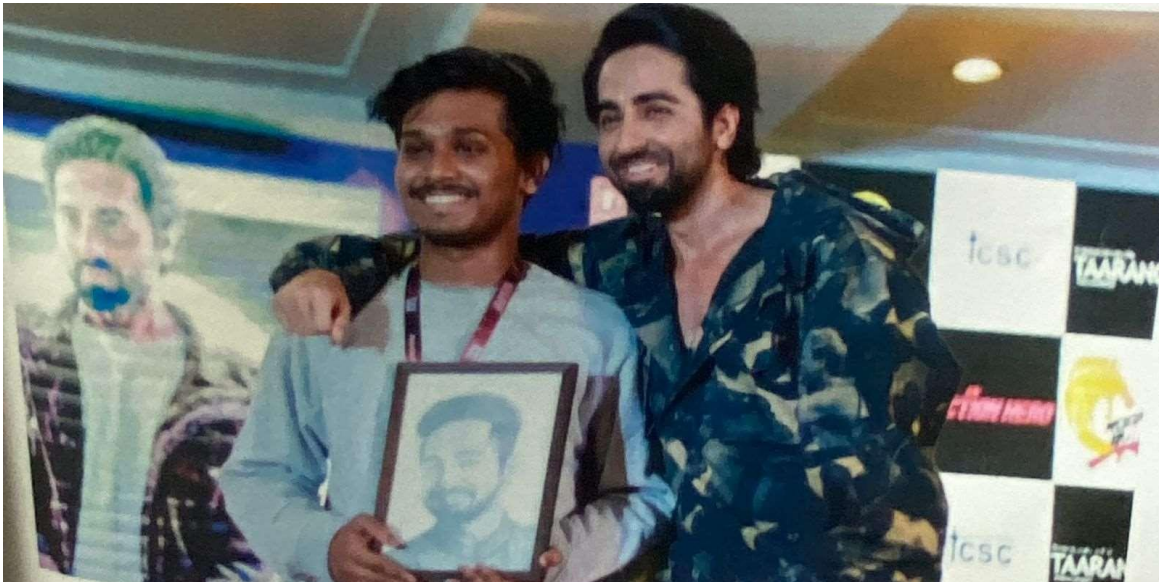

Venue: Thakur College, Auditorium

Summary of the Event :-

On the sunlit afternoon of 24th November, the chamber of Thakur College of Science and Commerce found itself surrounding the ingenious contemporary star, Ayushman Khurana. The affable actor had a waiting audience in the auditorium as he arrived to participate in Mumbai's second-largest festival 'Taarangan'. The renowned performer, a staple for TCSC's annual collegiate festival - Taarangan '22, was to promote the latest addition to his extensive filmography under his belt. His newest film, bearing the name, "An Action Hero" is a disruptive genre-bending movie meant to showcase his broad spectrum of skills. The nature of his arcane aptitude and talent flawlessly compliments Taarangan's 15 year-long withstanding motto - "bringing stars to life". This cinematic wonder is not your run-of-the-mill thriller but instead, is a commentary on the fickle nature of Bollywood stardom.

REPORT ON TAARANGAN 2022-23

The 15th Edition of the Inter-Collegiate Cultural Signature Festival of Thakur College of Science & Commerce-Taarangan' was celebrated on 23 and 24 January, 2023 adding unmatched glitters with its star-studded affair "Taarangan-Bringing Stars to Life 2022-2023" with the theme Wonder Women aptly recognised and celebrated the real and powerful women for their achievements without regard to divisions, whether national, ethnic, linguistic, cultural, economic or political. The event was inaugurated by three Trailblazing Women including Assistant Commissioner, Urban Development, Mira-Bhayandar Ms. Priyanka Bhosle, prominent Indian Model and Actor Sadia Khateeb, and International Athlete (Miss Asia 2022, Body Building) Dr. Manjiri Bhavsar. Dr. (Mrs.) C.T. Chakraborty, Principal. TCSC through her stimulating address traced the journey of iconic and influential women we have left behind a legacy which was truly inspirational.

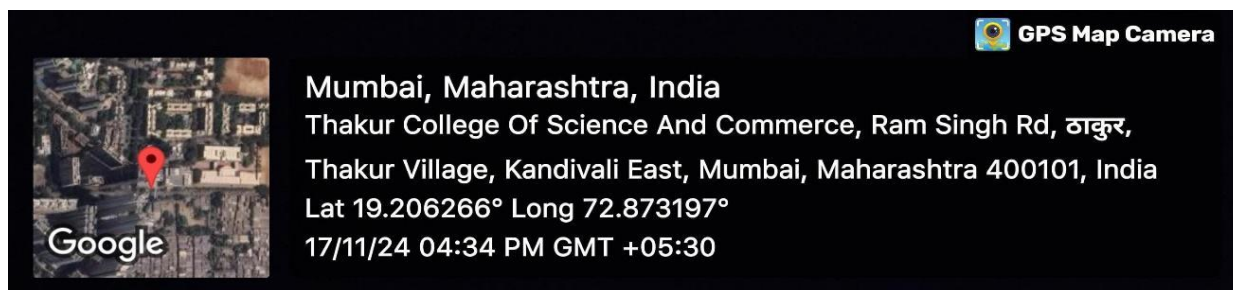

On Day 1, the annual exposition featured competitions under the category of performing, literary and fine arts. Soulful music renditions under the Sob Singing event category were judged by the unparalleled Indian musician Me Shahzad Ali. Passionate filmmaking students got the chance to screen their work under the short filmmaking competition by the acclaimed Director Mr Akshay Agarwal who judged their engaging content. Upping the star quotient for the evening were the talented star-studded panel of judges for the fashion show including style icons Ms. Srishti Shrivastava, Ms. Bhakti Jani, Ms. Akashlina Chandra and Mr. Tara Prasad. This was followed by the group dance with vivacious dancers setting the floor on fire with their energetic performances being judged by the brilliant dancer Mr. Vijendra Kumar and choreographer Mr. Pravesh Rana. Photography contest featuring images created by the participants impressed the renowned award-winning photographers Mr. Rahul Sharma and Mr. Brandon Pinto, who judged this event. The annual battle of the bands, one of the coolest showdowns of musical talent on the campus was judged by the indie rock group Insane Band including Mr. Samuel Joshua, Mr. Harsh Rathore, Mr. Aman Joshi, and Mr. Shivshaant Upadhyay. Talented student performers competed in front of them to clinch their chance to win this competition. Later, celebrity guest Ms. Roshni Walia a power house of talent and an acclaimed TV actress received a rousing welcome from the audience. Day one concluded on a high with the energetic performance of the Hindi Rock Band MH43 India with their heart thumping performance.

After an exhilarating experience of Day 1, the festive spirits permeated the second day with a line-up of power-packed performances. Under the Short Documentary Film Making Competition, films of cinematic and aesthetic excellence were evaluated by Ms. Aakanksha Dua, Director, The Viral Fever. This was followed by Rink Football, the spice of the season with footballers giving their best on the turf and virtually with Counter-Strike: Global Offensive. Contestants of the Poetry competition penned down their deepest thoughts while the beat boxing event attracted a commendable crowd on day two, followed by the word puzzle event. A foray of events including solo dance provided a platform for dancers to showcase their brilliant performances. Face painting let the contestants indulge in a dose of fun which was judged by celebrated make-up artist and hairstylist Ms. Vidhi Rajgor, as did Mocktail Making, B-Plan and Nail Art which were also some of the events of the hour. The War of CLs and ACLs was next on the roster, as the contingent leaders participated in fun games in tune with the fest's theme. A dazzling ensemble on the ramp for the coveted title of Mr. and Miss Taarangan received cheers from the packed auditorium as the panel of judges including Ms. Aditi Sanwal and Ms. Reecha Sinha evaluated the performances of the participants on various parameters. Next in line was the prestigious competition for creativity in advertising presented before the esteemed judges including Filmmakers Mr. Ashutosh Shah and Mr. Taher Shabbir, who assessed the contestants on their content and presentation. The highlight of the day, the 'Parade Ceremony by different contingents showcasing real and powerful women set the tone for the theme Wonder Women' emanating true Nari Shakti. A sizable audience appeared for the Rap Battle and were in absolute awe of the raw talent on display by rapper, emcee and beatboxer MC Benn who was also the judge for this event. The Elocution competition gave a platform for powerful speeches from strong orators. War of DJs whipped the crowd into a frenzy as they battled it out in front of the judges DJ Shanaya and DJ Shameless Mani who then took centre stage to enthrall the audience with their unforgettable heart-pumping music. The evening was specially curated featuring soulful Qawwali performance bringing a nice change of pace to the otherwise fast-paced day.

Taarangan has grown over the course of time and hosted around 1450 participants, more than ss colleges, 41 creative fun-infused events and with an ever-expanding participation reaching to more than 20,000 this year. The two days cultural extravaganza culminated with the prize distribution ceremony with the contingent P.T. Usha (UPG College) being declared as the first runner- up and contingent Razia Sultan (Mithibai College) emerging victorious winning the first position. The finale performance by the young music sensation and singer Mr. Vivek Singh created magic as he secured a special place in the hearts of listeners. Taarangan 2013 devoted to creating an unforgettable experience for all its visitors presented a reverie of exuberance and extravagance in its 15 edition.

REPORT ON TRISHNA 2022-23

Thakur College of Science & Commerce rejoiced in the grand celebration of the Annual Day - 'Trishna' held on 25 January, 2023. The colossal stage spectacle and eruption of positive energy at Trishna was palpable. The fest was declared open after the traditional lighting of the lamp followed by an opening classical dance performance. Group dance performances by the various departments took the stage by storm as the vivacious versatile dancers set the floor on fire with their energetic classical, traditional and western dance forums. Electrifying performances by the singers was a treat for the audience as they had the crowd singing along mesmerized by their soulful voices. A brilliant on-stage comedy tickled the funny bones of the attendees as they were exposed to witty comedy content. Year after year Trishna pulls together an incredible line-up unencumbered by genre boundaries, uniting alternative favourites and this year proved no different with YouTube sensation behind BB Ki Vines and actor Mr. Bhuvan Bam, the gorgeous actress Ms. Srishti Rindani and singer Mr. Raghav Meattle from the Rafta Rafta series sharing their fond memories and inspirational journey to stardom. To reiterate Taarangan's Wonder Women theme, the Fashion Show kicked off with the models ramping up the glamor quotient by yet another notch serving an interplay of traditional and modern silhouettes displaying real and powerful women. Kartavya Yadav and Samriddhi Sengar emerged as winners as they were crowned with the 'Mr. and Miss Thakur Title 2022-2023' during the glittering ceremony. Contingent Serena Williams (B.M.S) emerged as the Winner, followed by Oprah Winfrey (B.Sc.- 1.T. and D.S.) at the second place and Queen Victoria (Junior College-Commerce) at the third place. In continuation with the amazing performances, the spectators sang and danced to the tunes as the stage came alive with the finale group dance performance. The ecstatic audience sang and danced in feverish excitement to the ultimate celebration by the electrifying EDM duo DJ Le Twins with their high-energy performances. The night was filled with pulsating beats and a high energy crowd that couldn't get enough of the music and the unique style of Le Twins. This grandiose carnival with its illustrious legacy and unparalleled cultural synergy created experiences as exceptional as ever and memories for a lifetime.
